Please note that:

1. All matters covered hereinabove are solely based on position of the Moon on the respective days vis-a-vis the Lunar (Moon/Chandra) Sign (Rashi) of an Individual. Apart from above, effect of status/situation of planets as per birth details of an individual must be considered separately by him/her based on his/her horoscope.
2. Lunar Sign of an individual is determined on the basis of his/her birth details viz. date, time and place of birth (Birth based sign). It may also be determined on the basis of the name of the individual (Name based sign). Only in case where name of the individual is based on his/her birth details (i.e. based on birth nakshatra), Birth based sign and Name based sign will be the same.
3. 'Birth based sign' should only be used/considered for all important purposes including inter-alia for marriage and other similar rituals, journey and determining affects of planetary positions and other related matters. However, it has also been opined by others that for certain purposes including commercial etc. 'Name based sign' may be considered. However, for purposes other than generic day to day to activities, certain other special considerations/calculations/modifications (like determination of Muhurtas) are also required.
4. Matters covered hereinabove are based on Indian Standard Time (IST). Further, for the purpose of these, maximum time limit for day to day working activities (in general) has been taken as up to 8.00 P.M IST and therefore any change in position of moon after the said time on a day has been considered as have been occurred on the next day.
5. Views/opinions of others may differ on matters dealt with hereinabove and therefore should not be considered as conclusive/final. Reliance placed by any individual on these and on Statements given as below and consequential action taken is solely at his/her discretion and therefore I do not owe any responsibility whatsoever for consequential loss/damage, if any suffered by any person in this respect.
6. In case any individual do not know his/her 'Birth based sign', the relevant birth details may be sent to me on mailurqueries2sks@gmail.com.
7. Where relevant, you may determine your 'Name based sign' using the following Statements. For example, say your name is 'Uttam' starting with letter "U". The Lunar Sign written in first right (column) to the Column which contains the first/starting letters of the name would be considered as the Name based sign of the individual. Therefore, in this case, your name based sign is 'Taurus (Vrishav)'.
